

MG Scientific - 2025 New Year Showcase

Happy New Year! This is a special year for MG Scientific as 2025 represents the 40th year MG Scientific has been in business. We wanted to start the year by offering a big THANK YOU! to all our customers that have made this journey an overwhelming success. Over 40 years, the MG Scientific business has evolved in many ways, but one thing remains constant. MG Scientific continues to be a leading provider of chemical products, laboratory supplies and scientific equipment. Today we highlight our feature brands as a reminder that MG Scientific has you covered from sample collection to sample disposal and everything in between.
